

Preston Primary School Knowledge Organiser

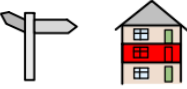

Topic: Geography - How is Banjul different to London?

Term: Autumn 1

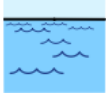

Year: 1/2

Duration: 5 weeks

The Powerful Knowledge we will take away from this Learning Enquiry (what we will be learning): I will know:

	The UK is known as the United Kingdom of Britain and Northern Ireland. England, Scotland and Wales make up Great Britain.
	Great Britain is surrounded by the Irish Sea, North Sea and The English Channel.
	The UK is part of the continent called Europe.
	How England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland are different.
	What special places are in London and how people travel around the capital city.
	Africa is the second largest continent.
	The physical and human features of The Gambia and its capital city Banjul.
	How Banjul is different to London.

Our Key Vocabulary:

Word		Meaning
Continent		one of the seven large land masses on the earth's surface, surrounded, or mainly surrounded, by sea and usually consisting of various countries:
Sea		the salty water that covers a large part of the surface of the earth, or a large area of salty water, smaller than an ocean, that is partly or completely surrounded by land:
Map		a drawing of the earth's surface, or part of that surface, showing the shape and position of different countries, political borders, natural features such as rivers and mountains, and artificial features such as roads and buildings:
Globe		The planet on which we live.
United Kingdom		A country that includes England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland.
Africa		the continent that is to the south of the Mediterranean Sea, to the east of the Atlantic Ocean, and to the west of the Indian Ocean
Landmark		a building or place that is easily recognized, especially one that you can use to judge where you are:

What I already know:

In Puffins and Penguins, I explored some similarities and differences between life in this country and life in other countries.

Country	Capital City	National flower	Flag
England	London
Wales	Cardiff
Scotland	Edinburgh
Northern Ireland	Belfast
The Gambia	Banjul	