Topic: RE – Who do Christians say made the world?

Term: Autumn 1

Year: 1 and 2

Duration: 6 weeks

What I already know:

Children will already know:

- In foundation, children would have encountered Christianity as part of their growing sense of self, their own community, and their place within it.
- some religious stories making connections with personal experiences.
- That Christians believe in God.
- That Christmas and Easter are important Christian celebrations.

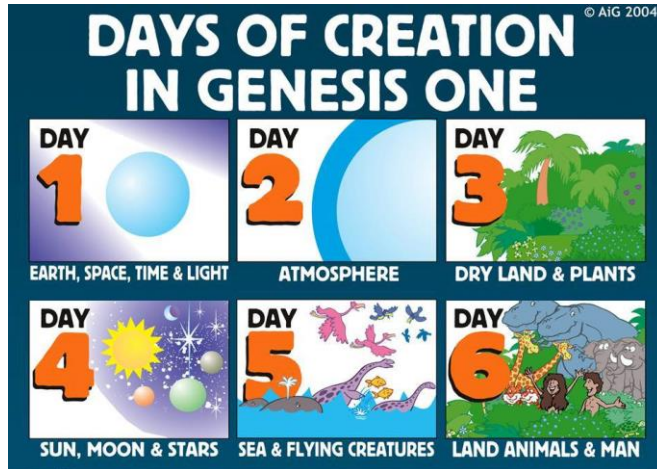

The Powerful Knowledge we will take away from this Learning Enquiry (what will be learning):

 Making sense of belief	 Understanding the impact.	 Connecting
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Retell the story of creation from Genesis 1:1–2:3 • Recognise that 'Creation' is the beginning of the 'big story' of the Bible • Say what the story tells Christians about God, Creation, and the world 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Give at least one example of what Christians do to say 'thank you' to God for Creation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Think, talk, and ask questions about living in an amazing world. • Give a reason for the ideas they have and the connections they make between the Jewish/Christian Creation story and the world they live in • Make links with Harvest, where Christians traditionally thank God for Creation: connect school harvest celebrations, church festivals and the idea of giving and sharing to those in need. • Understand that it is not only Christians who are thankful for food, shelter, sunlight, water, crops, life.

Word	Meaning

You might find it useful to explore this website with your child when learning about the Bible

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zdykjxs>

One of the creation stories in Genesis says that God created everything in 7 days.

A tractor bringing in the harvest. Children will explore Harvest and why Christians believe we should be thankful for the bounty of the earth.

Children will explore the Church's role in getting food to those in need, especially during the time of Harvest.

Know that the Bible is split into different sections, called books, and that Genesis is the first book of the Bible.
